Troy Gives a Duck

SPREADING POSITIVE messages and smiles one DUCK at a TIME

Troy Melnyk is a Clifton-native committed to ending loneliness and eliminating isolation by setting up social opportunities for friendship building and changing the stigma of his disability.

Troy Gives a Duck shows how a single person with a positive message can build community and create a chain reaction of kindness among others, providing them with a physical reminder that they are valued and that there is goodness to be found.

HOW IT WORKS?

- Participants craft hand-written messages. The messages are simple words of encouragement for anyone and everyone. Make the messages for a friend, a stranger you may encounter this week, or the guy that makes you coffee at the coffee shop!
- The written messages get embellished with a variety of duck “gifts”: lapel pins, stickers, decals, and other objects provided by Troy Gives A Duck. Attendees leave with a handful of duck gifts with messages. They also leave behind additional messages for Troy to distribute on his own.

2 SERVICE HOURS

- 1 service hour for creating a positive message and giving it to someone
- Another hour for posting a picture with the person you gave the message to, or the yellow card and putting #troygivesaduck
- Send screenshot of your post for the second hour to president.aphiodeltagamma@gmail.com

President

I will be in front room on Thursday 2:30 - 4:30, but if you can't meet at that time come talk to me or text me!
