Leadership

I've updated the calendar with events from the Women's Center, Multicultural Center, LGBT center & Science Café. There are also events from the CLDC on there already. DON'T FORGET ABOUT SERVE THIS SUMMER

REMEMBER TO EMAIL ME A PICTURE FOR PROOF OF ATTENDANCE WITHIN A WEEK AFTER GOING TO AN EVENT. IF YOU CAN'T MAKE IT TO AN EVENT REMEMBER TO TAKE YOUR NAME OFF THE SIGN UP SHEET BEFORE IT CLOSSES.

I've put some resume building and class registration workshops on the calendar for our chapter specifically (one per month; 2 in March). THE FIRST WORKSHOP IS NEXT SUNDAY @ 3pm in Alden Library

Other Leadership opportunities: TAKE A LITTLE, RUN FOR AN EXEC POSITION, if you're an exec in another org, unpaid TA position, unpaid research assistant position, if you're applying for grad school, are taking an admission test for grad school, interviewing for grad program, if you go to an educational exhibit at Alden library, Baker or Kennedy Museum

Participate in one of the following CLDC events: Career Coaching, Leadership Coaching, or Mock Interviewing. You can schedule your appointment online: <https://www.ohio.edu/student-affairs/career-and-leadership/services>

Quite Interesting
@qikipedia

In 2015, Swindon police apologised for using their sirens unnecessarily on a residential street - they were trying to settle a debate among a group of four-year-olds as to whether the noise is "woo-woo" or "nee-nah".

So my kids have a Shrek mask....

They play a game named "Hide and Shrek". It's like hide and seek except the seeker is Shrek and when he finds them he yells "GET OUT OF MAH SWAMP" and chases them.

As the seeker is moving through the house he quietly sings All Star.
