

AFRICAN CULTURAL WEEK

A CELEBRATION OF AFRICAN FILM, SPEAKERS, MUSIC, FOOD, LANGUAGES, DANCE AND MORE...

MONDAY MAY 9

An opening lecture by Assist. Professor of Political Science, Dr. Brandon Kendhammer, reflecting on the week's theme, Transformational Change. Light refreshments will be served.

OPENING LECTURE
6 pm | Friends of the Library

TUESDAY MAY 10

THE CHANGE: History Through Guineans' Eyes

Nominated for an African Academy Award for "Best Diaspora Documentary", THE CHANGE tells the story of Guinea's recent history, from the people's perspective. Light refreshments will be served.

MOVIE NIGHT
6 pm | Baker 341

WEDNESDAY MAY 11

Fela...and His Politics Became Music

A lecture by Dr. Ayayi-Soyinka, Glidden Visiting Professor in the African Studies Program and College of Fine Arts.

Fashion Show
A showcase of African fashion and music!

LECTURE AND SHOW
7 pm | Walter Rotunda

THURSDAY MAY 12

Akan! Kiswahili! Somali! Wolof! Zulu!

An evening of skits, songs, poems, food, raffles, and prizes, brought to you by the African Studies Program, the Linguistics Department, and the Center for African and Asian Languages.

LANGUAGE NIGHT
7 pm | Walter 235

FRIDAY MAY 13

An evening of African music from around the continent.

Tickets are $2 for 21 and up,
$4 for under 21.

DANCE NIGHT
10 pm | Jackie O's

SATURDAY MAY 14

Join us as we honor this year's African Hero, Rebecca Garang of South Sudan, in an evening of African music, art, food, speeches and celebration.

Tickets are $7 for adults, $5 for teens 13-17, and free for children under 13. Ticket purchase information available at www.african.ohio.edu

AFRICAN HEROES NIGHT
6 pm | Ping Center

MAY 9 - 14 2011

TICKET PURCHASE INFORMATION: WWW.AFRICAN.OHIO.EDU
QUESTIONS: ASU.OHIO@GMAIL.COM

AFRICAN CULTURAL WEEK

With support from:

African Studies Program

International Student Union

