

Women & Children's Health in Africa: Clinical and Social Perspectives Agenda

Friday, March 29, 2013

- 3 pm – 4 pm                      Registration – The Bricks at Irvine Hall
Poster set-up
- 4 pm – 4:15 pm                      Welcome! Steve Howard– Irvine 194 Randy Leite, Dean, College of Health Sciences and Professions
Ming Li, Interim Executive Director, Center for International Studies
- 4:15 pm – 5:15 pm                      Keynote – Honorable Edna Adan Ismail – Irvine 194
“Fighting FGM in the Horn of Africa: the Edna Hospital Experience”
Presentations: The Institute for the African Child presents
The African Children's Hero's Awards
- 5:15 pm – 7:00 pm                      Reception & poster session – The Bricks

Saturday, March 20, 2013

- 8 am - 8:45 am                      Breakfast/Registration – The Bricks
- 8:45 am – 9:00 am                      Day 2 Welcome –Gillian Ice – Irvine 194

Part I: The Health of Africa's Women

- 9 am – 9:40 am                      Nafisa Bedri, Ahfad University for Women, introduced by Caroline Kingori – Irvine 194
“Promoting Women's Health in Sudan: the FGM Challenge”
- 9:40 am – 10:20 am                      Crystal Patil, University of Chicago, introduced by Kombe Kapatampoyo – Irvine 194
*“Innovative Group Antenatal Care to Help Meet
Millennium Development Goals in Low Income Countries: Formative Research from Malawi and Tanzania”*
- 10:20 am – 10:45 am                      Coffee Break – The Bricks
- 10:45 am – 11:25 am                      Ivy Pike, University of Arizona, introduced by Aalyia Sadruddin – Irvine 194 “Intersections of Insecurity: Poverty, Hunger and the Impact of 'Small Wars' in Northern Kenya”

11:25 am – Noon Panel Discussion: Managing Crises in African Women’s Health–
Edna Adan, Nafisa Bedri, Crystal Patil, Ivy Pike;
Jane Broecker, moderator – Irvine 194

Noon – 1:00 pm Lunch – The Bricks

Part II: The Health of Africa’s Children

1:00 pm – 1:40 pm Aggrey Otieno, Pambazuko Mashinani, Nairobi - Irvine 194
introduced by Edna Wangui
“Applying IT to Improve Maternal and Child Health in Nairobi’s Slums”

1:40 pm – 2:20 pm Marape Marape, Botswana-Baylor Children’s Clinical Center of Excellence,
introduced by Bose Maposa - Irvine 194
“Evolution and success of Botswana's Pediatric HIV/AIDS Care and Treatment Program - the Botswana-Baylor Children's Clinical Centre of Excellence Experience”

2:20 pm – 2:45 pm Coffee Break – The Bricks

2:45 pm – 3:25 pm Alyson Young, University of Florida, introduced by Dawit Woldu - Irvine 194
“Infant vulnerability and maternal feeding choices among the Datoga of northern Tanzania”

3:25 pm – 4:00 pm Panel Discussion: The Health of Africa’s Children – Aggrey
Otieno, Marape Marape, Alyson Young;
Zelalem Haile, moderator - Irvine 194

4:00 pm Adjourn

Conference Organizing Committee and Secretariat:
Steve Howard, Gillian Ice, Bose Maposa, Debra McBride

The conference organizers wish to thank the following for their support:

*Ohio University College of Health Sciences & Professions
Ohio University Heritage College of Osteopathic Medicine
Center for International Studies
Athens Medical Associates*

