

African Studies Program

50th Anniversary Events

Fall 2013-14

Africa Crossroads
Wednesday 12:00pm - 1:00pm
Baker Multicultural Center
September, 11, 18, 25
October, 9, 16, 23, 30
November, 6, 13, 20

Join the African Studies Program as OU students, faculty, staff, and invited scholars share their Africa-focused research and projects. You are welcome to bring your lunch.

Africa Music!
Tal National

Workshop: Tues, Sept. 24, 7:00pm at Putnam 227
Concert: Wed, Sept. 25, 8:00pm at Stuart's Opera House

We are excited to present Niger's Tal National, in collaboration with Stuart's Opera and the Ohio University Performing Arts, and Patience Chaitezvi, a mbira player from Zimbabwe.

Patience Chaitezvi

Concert: Wed, Oct. 30, 7:00pm at Baker Ballroom B
Workshop: Thurs, Oct. 31, 7:00pm at Putnam 227

Lectures and Talks

African Studies: 50 years of Ohio ties to Africa
Sat, Sept. 28, 1:00pm at Grover

This is part of the 2013 Black Alumni Reunion weekend! Come listen to the panel discussion on 50 years of African Studies.

Towards African Renaissance:
Translating The Conscript -
Dr. Ghirmai Negash

Wed, Oct. 2, 7:00pm at Computer Services Center 121B

Join us for our common reader project for the year, The Conscript, which was translated from Tigrinya to English by English Professor Ghirmai Negash.

African Students Union(ASU)
Cross Over
Sat, Oct. 19

ASU is made up of students from across the university who are from Africa or have an interest in promoting African culture on campus. Contact Jeremiah Asaka (ja580012@ohio.edu) for more information.

www.african.ohio.edu
www.facebook.com/50YearsOfAfricanStudiesAtOhioUniversity

Credit: 50th Anniversary Logo Design - Brittini Barranco

OHIO
UNIVERSITY

Center for International Studies