

November 17, 2010

We are pleased to announce two openings for an Assistant/Associate Professor of Counseling at the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater beginning in August of 2011. Attached you will find position descriptions for both a school counseling and community counseling faculty position.

The UWW Counseling Program is CACREP accredited and is housed in the College of Education and Professional Studies, accredited by NCATE. Our Master's program enjoys a strong reputation for preparing competent counselors. We look forward to enhancing those efforts through the addition of new faculty members in the coming year.

Please share this information with qualified persons in your program. We appreciate your assistance with our process. If you have questions, please email me at normand@uww.edu. Thanks!

Sincerely,

Don Norman, Ph.D., LPC, LMFT
Chair & Program Coordinator
Counselor Education Department
