

HEIDELBERG UNIVERSITY

The MAC Program is proud to offer:

Domestic Minor Sex Trafficking in Ohio

Friday, February 18, 2011

Presented by Dr. Celia Williamson of the University of Toledo

Location:

Heidelberg University
Hoernemann Refectory (Aramark Room)
310 E. Market St.
Tiffin, Ohio 44883

Time:

9:00am-12:00pm
Registration table opens at 8:30am
Light refreshments will be provided

*Campus map available at: www.heidelberg.edu

Objectives:

1. Describe domestic minor sex trafficking and foreign born labor and sex trafficking in Ohio and the U.S.
2. Explain why social workers and counselors are the critical component to identification and healing, and why students are critical to moving the issue forward.
3. List key indicators of people who are being trafficked
4. Describe techniques for talking to someone who may be being trafficked.
5. Explain how to report information on potential victims in Ohio
6. List resources for learning more and getting involved

3 CEU's for Counselors and Social Workers pending OCSWMFT Board Approval

Detach and mail in bottom portion with payment. Make checks payable to: Heidelberg University

Registration cost (check box):

MAC School and Clinical Supervisors	<input type="checkbox"/>	FREE
MAC Students	<input type="checkbox"/>	$5
Community Members and Educators	<input type="checkbox"/>	$20

Name: _____

Address: _____

Contact info (phone/email): _____

CEU's (Check box):  Counselor  Social Worker

Please RSVP by Monday, February 14, 2011 and direct any questions to: Megan Mahon at mmahon@heidelberg.edu. Make checks payable to: Heidelberg University. Payment and registration confirmation can be mailed c/o Megan Mahon to: Heidelberg University, MAC Program, 310 E. Market St., Tiffin, Ohio 44883. At-the-door payment also available, but please make sure to RSVP...limited seats available!