Entertainment Provided by: Ms. Nancy Wilson, Grammy Award Winning Jazz Vocalist

As a Grammy Award Winning Jazz Vocalist for R.S.V.P. (Rare Songs, Very Personal) in 2005, Nacy Wilson's musical style ranges from pop style ballads, jazz and blues, to show tunes and well known standards. Born in Chillicothe, OH, Wilson grew up in Columbus where she was exposure to music at an early age. In 1959, Wilson moved to New York City, and within four weeks of her arrival, she got her first big break as a fill in for The Blue Morocco. Since then, Wilson is most known for her debut single, "Guess Who I Saw Today," records with Capitol and work with MCG Jazz, The Nancy Wilson Show (NBC) and National Public Radio (NPR).
