

Ethics in Couples Therapy: Walking the Straight and Narrow

April 19, 2012
Thursday, 6:00pm-9:15pm

This workshop focuses on the challenging ethical issues found in working with couples, including confidentiality, triangulation, court and legal involvement, conflict, anger, and domestic violence. The Gestalt approach to working with couples involves a systems approach which will be highlighted as an aid to reduce ethical dilemmas. Participants are asked to bring a case, or questions in working with couples to be discussed during the workshop.
