

Department of Counseling
College of Education

Job Title: Assistant/Associate Professor, Counselor Education
Position: Full-Time, Tenure-Track
Job ID: 7205

Responsibilities

Assistant Professor-Teach clinical/didactic courses in counseling at the masters and doctoral level. Chair and serve on doctoral dissertation committees. Advise masters and doctoral students. Engage in research, publication, grant writing, and professorial presentations at the state and national levels. Participate in accreditation activities, serve on Department, College, and University Committees, and work collaboratively with other faculty in the College's programs and departments.

Required Qualifications

Doctorate in Counselor Education from a CACREP-accredited program required. Doctoral degree must be received prior to start date of August, 2013. Eligibility as a certified/licensed Professional School Counselor .and/or Professional Counselor License in the state of Ohio required.

Preferred Qualifications

Professional experience in school counseling or working with children/adolescents strongly preferred.

Salary

Competitive

Application Details

To apply for this position, you must complete the on-line University of Akron application and attach a statement of interest, a curriculum vitae, examples of scholarly work and teaching experience to your profile.

See <http://www.uakron.edu/training/rsExternal.dot> for specifics.

Go to "My Career Tools" on the human resources Careers home page and upload the required documents under the link "Cover Letters and Attachments".

Applicants should fully describe their qualifications and experience with reference to the minimum and preferred qualifications. This is the information on which the initial review of materials will be based. A resume may be submitted but will not be accepted in place of any information requested on the application.

Comments

For additional information about the position, please contact the committee's search person at 330-972-6748.

Application Deadline

Open until filled