

Department of Counselor Education and Human Services
School Counseling Non-Tenure Track Faculty Member Position

The Department of Counselor Education and Human Services at the University of Dayton is pleased to announce a full-time non-tenure track Faculty position for teaching primarily on our Dublin campus (approximately 80 miles from Dayton). The successful candidate will receive a one-year contract, with the possibility of renewal, in the school counseling program to begin August 16, 2014. Summer teaching may be available. Salary is competitive, commensurate with experience and background.

Responsibilities: The candidate will have had training in school counseling and will be expected to contribute to the continued development and success of the department through teaching, leadership, and mentoring of students. The position requires teaching courses at the graduate level in school counseling on our Dublin and Dayton campuses. Teaching responsibilities may include but not be limited to school counseling specific courses in leadership, consultation, and program development and related coursework. The position also requires the advising of master's students.

Required Qualifications:

- ABD in Counselor Education by August 16, 2014
- Should be license-eligible as a school counselor in Ohio
- Valid driver's license with less than six-points

Preferred Qualifications:

- Earned Doctorate in Counselor Education by August 16, 2014
- Higher education teaching experience
- Potential for scholarly productivity
- One or more years full-time school counseling experience
- Licensed as a School Counselor in Ohio or licensure from a state with reciprocity
- Earned degree from CACREP accredited program
- Potential to provide service to the school counseling program and the department
- Experience with culturally and linguistically diverse learners
- Effective interpersonal communication skills
- Ability to work collaboratively with faculty and students.

The University of Dayton, founded in 1850 by the Society of Mary, is a top ten Catholic research university. The University seeks outstanding, diverse faculty and staff who value its mission and share its commitment to academic excellence in teaching, research and artistic creativity, the development of the whole person, and leadership and service in the local and global community.

Application: All applications must be submitted electronically at <http://jobs.udayton.edu/applicants/Central>. Applications must include a cover letter, curriculum vita, contact information for three (3) references, and transcripts of your highest completed degree.

Questions regarding the position can be directed to the search committee chair:

Molly A. Schaller, Ph.D.
University of Dayton
Chair, Department of Counselor Education and Human Services
(937) 229-3644

Review: Review of applicants will begin January 23, 2014, and continue until the position is filled. Official transcripts are required prior to the start of the contract. References will be contacted after advanced stages of screening.

To attain its Catholic and Marianist mission, the University is committed to the principles of diversity, inclusion and affirmative action and to equal opportunity policies and practices. We act affirmatively to recruit and hire women, traditionally under-represented minority groups, people with disabilities and veterans.