

April 4, 2020 • Kent State University • Kent, OH

CALL FOR ACADEMIC PROPOSALS

The First CSI Ohio Conference Submission Deadline 12/15/19

Chi Sigma Iota of Ohio is planning its first ever formal conference to be held at Kent State University. We are hoping for a diverse range of presenters including practicing clinicians and school counselors who can offer professional knowledge to counselors in training. The theme of the conference is Professional Collaboration Amongst all Levels of Counselors. The conference will be held on Saturday April 4th from 9:00am to 4:30pm.

Proposal Criteria

- Presentation Title, Presenter Name(s), School/Agency Affiliation, Contact Info
- Provide 2-3 Learning Objectives or Goals of your presentation
- 100-word Description of the Presentation Focus
- Justification that your presentation will benefit other Graduate Students & Counselors from Ohio attending this Conference
- List 2-3 research citations relevant to the topic
- A copy of your CV or Resume
- Presentations may include appropriate technology needs (such as a projector for a PowerPoint presentation)
- All accepted presenters must be registered attendees for the CSI Ohio Conference

What content area will be addressed?

- Trauma/Crisis Counseling
- Counseling Children/Adolescents
- Suicide Prevention/Intervention
- Grief/Loss
- Ethics/Legal Issues
- Psychopharmacology
- Addictions Counseling
- Multicultural Concerns and Issues in Counseling
- LGBTQ+ Concerns and Issues in Counseling
- Supervision

*Presentation topics have been identified according to survey results of CSI members' interests in presentations and webinars in 2018-2019. These content areas may span across clinical mental health counseling and school counseling.

More conference information and rates can be found here:

https://kent.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_beALgugFuaHQnaZ