

Improve Teletherapy Skills

Are you a (licensed/trainee) mental health clinician, and would you like to improve your online therapeutic skills?

Facilitative Interpersonal and Relational Skills Training for Teletherapy (Tele-FIRST) is an interactive experiential training that integrates the latest evidence on deliberate practice, teletherapy research, and facilitative interpersonal skills.

Attend tele-FIRST to refine your ability to attune to and respond effectively to patients – and receive CE credits.

What does the training offer?

- Two 45-min individual online practices
 - Complete at your own time
- One 3-hour interactive online training
 - Workshop & practice on scheduled date
 - Groups of 4-6 attendees
