John Carroll University

Department of Counseling

Doctoral Internship Opportunities

2027–2028

TWO POSITIONS AVAILABLE

Gain comprehensive, hands-on experience in counselor education at John Carroll University, a CACREP-accredited program.

INTERNSHIP HIGHLIGHTS

Teaching
Teach or co-teach graduate counseling courses.

Supervision
Develop clinical supervision skills.

Research
Collaborate with faculty on research projects.

Mentorship & Service
Mentor master's students and engage in departmental initiatives.

Key Details

- Start: August 2027
- Duration: 2027–2028 academic year
- Commitment: Approximately 20 hours/week
- Location: Cleveland, Ohio area | Fully remote participation possible
- Compensation: Paid independent teaching opportunities based on experience and readiness (not guaranteed).

Eligibility

Current doctoral students in Counselor Education and Supervision who are eligible for a doctoral internship during the 2027–2028 academic year.

How to Apply

Submit the following to Dr. Shawn Burton at sburton@jcu.edu:

- ✓ Cover letter
- ✓ Curriculum vitae (CV)
- ✓ Unofficial doctoral transcript(s)
- ✓ Teaching demonstration video (30–60 minutes)
- ✓ Three letters of reference (sent directly by referees)

Application Deadline: January 31, 2027

Questions? Contact Dr. Shawn Burton at sburton@jcu.edu.