

TO ALL GRADUATING OU STUDENTS interested in a career working for SOCIAL JUSTICE

> Get Trained to Organize

> Bring People Together

> Win Community Change

Information Session

Sunil Joy, a community organizer from the DART Center, will be on Ohio University's campus to present information and interview applicants interested in careers working for social, economic, and racial justice. He will discuss:

- Strengthening relationships through One-on-Ones
- Developing leaders in communities to take direct action on issues of injustice
- Congregation-based Coalition Building

The DART Center has built coalitions throughout the country that have won important victories on a broad set of justice issues including:

- Education reform in low-performing public schools,
- Fair immigration policies
- Access to Affordable Healthcare
- Living Wage campaigns & job training
- Affordable housing, etc.

Where & When

An Information Session will take place on Monday April 6 @ 7:00PM in the Baker University Center, Room 341. For directions call: (740)-593-2909. Initial interviews will be scheduled at the close of the information session. To RSVP, contact Melissa Pluss at ph: (785) 841-2680; email: melissa@thedartcenter.org with name, phone #, and email. For more info visit: www.thedartcenter.org.