

Day Trip to
Frank Lloyd Wright's Westcott House
Saturday, May 16, 2009

Sponsored by the Friends of the Kennedy Museum

The Westcott House by Frank Lloyd Wright was designed for industrialist and entrepreneur Burton J. Westcott and his family. A recent $5.3 million restoration has returned the Prairie Style home to its 1908 appearance.

Trip Highlights:

A tour of the Westcott House, Springfield Ohio and additional stops at pottery shops, art cooperatives and lunch in the Yellow Springs area.

Details:

Transportation - by vans or small buses, depending on the number participating.

Time - 9 a.m. to approximately 5:30 p.m. Group will meet at the Kennedy Museum parking lot at 8:45 a.m.

Cost - Expected to be $40. for members, $45. for guests. Will include transportation, museum fees and travel snacks. Lunch will be paid on your own.

Frank Lloyd Wright's Westcott House and the Yellow Springs Area
Saturday, May 16, 2009

Sponsored by Friends of the Kennedy Museum

Your Name _____ Guest Name _____

Address _____ City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Phone Number _____ Email Address _____

Reserve seats for the following:

_____ Kennedy Museum Member @ $40. = _____

_____ Non-member @ $45. = _____

PLEASE INDICATE YOUR INTEREST BY FILLING OUT THIS FORM AND SENDING IT TO

KMA Westcott Trip
c/o Margaret Thomas
3 Briarwood Drive
Athens, Ohio 45701

Direct your questions to Margaret Thomas (thomasm@ohio.edu) at 593-8765 or Matt Rapposelli (rapposel@ohio.edu)
You will be contacted for final reservation information by May 1, 2009.