

The Friends of Kennedy Museum's Day Trip to
THE CARNEGIE MUSEUMS OF ART AND NATURAL HISTORY

on Saturday, June 25, 2011

Would you like to see - Antonio Canova's sculpture Terpsichore, and paintings by van Gogh, Monet and Hopper; Alberto Giacometti's Walking Man 1 and de Kooning's Woman VI; 140 plaster casts of architectural masterpieces in the hall of architecture, and the phenomenal collection of minerals and gems, dinosaurs, birds, African wildlife and ancient Egypt in Natural History? (details at <http://www.cmoa.org>) The KMA plans are simple:

- Start at 7:30 am – meeting in the lower level parking lot at the Kennedy Museum.
- Travel to Pittsburgh (some breakfast foods provided - bring your own coffee).
- Arrive at the CMOA in time for a docent tour of special collections.
- Have lunch together in the museum (pay on your own).
- Spend the afternoon at your own pace – explore the galleries with the opportunity for a free audio guide to the collections.
- Meet at 4:30 at the bus for the ride home; the trip enriched by our VIP snacks.
- Return by approximately 8:30 pm.

COST - $95 for members and $105 for non members covers the bus, admission and travel food costs. 40 participants are needed to make our trip a KMA success. We have 20 signed up already. For more information, details and registration, please contact Margaret Thomas at thomasm@ohio.edu or call 740-593-8765.

She will provide you with a CMOA brochure and answer any questions you might have.
