

Summer 2014 Research Experiences for Undergraduates (REU) Program

June 9th – July 24th in Atlanta, Georgia
Applications Due: March 28 @ 5 PM EST

Community Geography & GIS 7 Week Summer Research Program

Choose from 1 of 3 Research Tracks

- Track 1: Urban social geographies
- Track 2: Urban greenspaces & invasive species
- Track 3: Urban environmental quality

What will REU students do?

- Engage in community-based research
- Apply classroom learning to real-world issues
- Understand community-university research partnerships

REU Student Compensation

$3000 stipend, dorm & most meals, $750 conference travel support, $250 travel support to/from Atlanta

Learn more at <http://csaw.gsu.edu/nsf-reu/>
Dr. Tim Hawthorne (PI) at thawthorne@gsu.edu
Dr. Katherine Hankins (Co-PI) at khankins@gsu.edu

