Advanced Placement® Summer Institutes 2014

---

Ohio University-Chillicothe will host its 15th annual Advanced Placement Summer Institute July 28 – 31, 2014. The Advanced Placement Summer Institute introduces the teaching methods, student exam expectations, and curriculum content needed by teachers of AP® courses for high school students.

AP English Language & Composition

The AP Summer Institute in English Language and Composition will provide intensive training to teachers and prospective teachers of AP English Language and Composition. Participants will design sample syllabi and lessons, review the AP Language exam, and practice evaluating and scoring sample tests. They will explore various critical reading strategies and through hands-on writing and review of student writing, analyze rhetorical devices, explore effective strategies for teaching the essay, and construct course units that integrate reading and writing. Participants will be expected to exchange classroom strategies and to work on syllabi for their own AP courses.

Dates: July 28, 29, 30, & 31, 2014

Time: 8:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.

AP European History

---

This institute in European History is designed for new and experienced AP European History teachers. The institute will focus on: pupil selection; teacher qualifications; course content and organization; selecting textbooks; primary and secondary source readers, and reference materials; nature and parameters of the AP exam; methods of AP assessment – introduction and practice with the AP grading rubric; using visual prompts to promote higher order thinking; effective essay writing techniques; and Internet resources for the instruction and research. The instructor will discuss how to prepare students for the 2014 exam as well as forthcoming changes to the AP European History course and exam in 2015-16.

Dates: July 28, 29, 30, & 31, 2014

Time: 8:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.

AP Environmental Science

---

This four-day workshop will explore all aspects for teaching AP Environmental Science. Participants will design and do local outdoor area labs, learn methods for improving student learning and scores, refine their AP audits, and explore the joys of teaching Environmental Science. Use of GIS, lab, and classroom response technologies will be explored. Participants can expect to get wet, muddy and excited about teaching AP Environmental Science.

Dates: July 28, 29, 30, & 31, 2014

Time: 8:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.

AP U.S. Government & Politics

---

The AP Summer Institute in Government & Politics will provide intensive training to high school teachers and prospective teachers of AP Government & Politics. Each day includes comprehensive instruction and interaction with the AP session leader. Workshop sessions focus on positive and effective teaching strategies and practical classroom use of AP materials.

Dates: July 28, 29, 30, & 31, 2014

Time: 8:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.

AP U.S. History

---

This institute in U.S. History is designed for new and experienced AP U.S. History teachers. The institute will focus on: pupil selection; teacher qualifications; course content and organization; selecting textbooks; primary and secondary source readers, and reference materials; nature and parameters of the AP exam; method AP assessment – introduction and practice with the AP grading rubric; using visual prompts to promote higher order thinking; effective essay writing techniques; Internet resources for instruction and research.
