

The Mexico Solidarity Network presents:

Latin America's Security State

WITH CARLOS EUCEDA

WHEN Tuesday, Oct. 26 | 7-9pm

WHERE Bentley Annex, Rm 135

Carlos will be discussing the militarization of Latin America, the criminalization of social movements and the effects of the United State's attempts at security. Carlos will also focus on immigration, scare tactics in the media (in the US and Latin America), and how this all fits into a neoliberal agenda. Carlos is a staff person at the Mexico Solidarity Network's Autonomous Center in Chicago and a native of Honduras. He has a 15 year history of work in community organizing and human rights.

There will be fair trade Mayan handcrafts for sale. Proceeds fund community development projects in the Mayan highlands of Chiapas, Mexico.
