Summer Conference 2022

Family and
Consumer Sciences

Knowledge You Can't LIVE Without

The past two years have brought many challenges and the world of Family and Consumer Sciences did not back down. From a virtual conference in 2020, to a hybrid conference in 2021, we are pleased to be back in person for the 2022 OATFACS Summer Conference!

We have something planned for everyone that highlights every area of Family and Consumer Sciences including Education & Training, Hospitality & Tourism, and Extension.

The OATFACS Conference Planning Committee and Board have worked diligently to bring you a conference full of engaging workshops and sessions that we hope will inspire Family and Consumer Sciences professionals to embrace the theme "Knowledge You Can't TEACH Without!!"
