

You are invited.....

Second official
Plant Biology Graduate Student Association

Garlic Mustard Pull

Garlic mustard is an invasive species that competes with forest plants. It can be managed through removal and YOU can help.

Learn about forest ecology and invasive species in a hands-on activity!

Meet Athens County's glorious forest wildflowers!

Sunday, April 9th 1-4 PM

Space is limited! RSVP to mh201611@ohio.edu