

Ecolunch Seminar Series

Fall, 2019

Wednesday 11:50–12:40

Irvine 159

August 28	Organizational meeting #1
September 4	Courtney Silver- Peavey	“Let’s talk FYLF - vocalizations and reintroduction of the foothill yellow-legged frog”
September 11	Organizational meeting #2
September 18	Ray Huey & Steven Stearns	How to be a graduate student
September 25	Scott Moody	“The Ontology of a Comparative Biologist, from the Sandhills of Nebraska to the Ohio River Valley”
October 2	DJ Morgan	“Cranial adaptations in secondarily aquatic sauropsids”
October 9	Neil Hamrick	“This is my brain on fish”
October 16	Alycia Stigall	“The invasion hierarchy: ecological and evolutionary consequences of invasions in the fossil record”
October 23	Anthony Gilbert	"Thermoregulatory behavior and thermal physiology are evolutionarily uncoupled in phrynosomatid lizards"
October 30	Almir de Paula	“Frogs! Not the pinnacle of the evolutionary process, but close”
November 6	Emily Watts	“ Plethodon kentucki : my search for whiskey and a SNaQ”
November 13	Brian Waldron	“ Plethodon cinereus : My search for Emily’s whiskey”
November 20	JP Nassif	"Morphological disparity in the middle-ear ossicles of seabirds with implications for behavioral ecology"
December 4	Mattea Lewis	“Lessons learned from tracking endangered bats during autumn”