

to all OU students interested in careers in social justice

> learn to ORGANIZE

> build POWER

> win JUSTICE

Information Session

Tiphane Deas, a community organizer with The DART Center, will be on campus to present information about careers and internships working for social, economic, and racial justice. She will discuss:

- Differences between justice and charity
- Power and direct action to address issues of injustice
- Congregation-based coalition building

The DART Center

The DART Center has built coalitions throughout the country that have won important victories on a broad set of justice issues including:

- Systemic education reform in low-performing public schools
- Fair immigration policies
- Access to affordable healthcare
- Green job creation and living wage campaigns
- Affordable housing
