

volunteer

To help sexual assault survivors
in Athens, Meigs, and Perry Counties

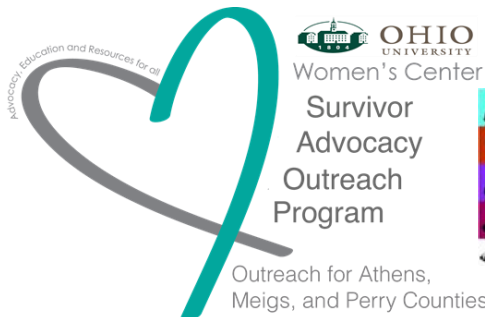

The Survivor Advocacy Outreach Program (SAOP) at Ohio University is offering 40-hour Volunteer Trainings for volunteers interested in volunteering with our 24-hour crisis hotline, legal advocacy, awareness advocacy, office assistance, and medical advocacy. Training completion is required prior to volunteering.

40-hour training offered
March 10th-March 31st

Tuesdays and Thursdays from 4pm-6:30pm; Saturdays 9:30am-5pm

To register:

For more information or to register,
please contact (740) 591-4266.

OHIO
UNIVERSITY

The Survivor Advocacy Outreach Program (OUSAOP) is part of the Ohio University Women's Center. OUSAOP is supported by the Ohio University Women's Center and is funded by grant number 2014VASAVE900 awarded by the Office for Victims of Crime, through the Ohio Attorney General's Office. Victims of federal crime will be served through OUSAOP services.